CAREER FIELD FACT SHEET

Career Field Information

Category:	Unit:	AFSC:
Communications	267 Combat Communications Squadron	3C0X1

Job Title:	Equivalent Civilian Career:
Communications-Computer Systems Specialist	Information Systems Technician

Job Description / Background:

Supervises or operates fixed and deployed communications-computer systems (C-CS). Performs or supervises activities such as configuring and monitoring hardware and software for system operation, processing and control of data flow, and client-server multi-user system support including network management or administration. Performs microcomputer fault isolation and restoral actions. Controls, manages, and accounts for automated information systems resources. Manages C-CS security programs and activities including information protection (IP).

Technical Training and School Information

School Length:	School Location:
9 Weeks	Keesler AFB MS

Job Qualifications / Prerequisites

For entry into this specialty, completion of high school with courses in mathematics and computer science is desirable

The Massachusetts Air National Guard provides all training
For more information call 1-800-292-3184 or visit http://www.maotis.ang.af.mil/join